

Some people have greatness thrust upon them. Very few have excellence thrust upon them. They achieve it. They do not achieve it easily, and they don't stumble onto it in the course of amusing themselves. All excellence involves discipline and tenacity of purpose.

John Gardner

“Never justify failure.”

Success doesn't just “happen.” You set it in motion.