

God goes before me into each and every trial. He leaves a trodden path for me to follow. I can walk where danger is crouched on every side, because Jesus walks with me.

I may face being misunderstood, overlooked and forgotten, but God knows me and loves me greatly.

I will keep my eyes on HIM. I will fix my emotions on HIS promises. They are unshakable. He is positioning me for a great blessing.